Wrong is wrong, even if you don't get caught. Let us remember that "the eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good" (Proverbs 15:13).

Wrong is wrong, even if others are doing worse things. It will be of little comfort to you in the day of judgment if you should be lost, knowing that others did things which you considered to be worse than your own sins. Remember, “the thought of sin is foolishness” (Proverbs 24:9).

Wrong is wrong, even if it is commonly considered acceptable. The Bible says, “Thou shall not follow a multitude to do evil” (Exodus 23:2). The Christian should “enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men. Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it and pass away” (Proverbs 4:4-5).

Remember, there is never a right way to do a wrong!

Now, suppose you make a list of reasons why you do not attend the classes:

“There's something else I had rather do.”

“I’m good enough and know enough already.”

“I need the extra rest (so I can work more overtime and/or engage in more recreational activities).”

Go ahead, make your list. Then present it to God when you pray! If you think God will accept such excuses, I suggest you read (before you reach judgment day) Matthew 6:33, Matthew 25, and Revelation 3:14-21.
