Withstanding The Devil's Attacks

By Mike Riley

In the late 1600s, Edward Teach joined the crew of a British ship that was headed to the Caribbean. Much later in his nautical career, he managed to capture a merchant vessel and turn it into a 40-gun warship. Teach soon became known as Blackbeard — the most feared and famous pirate in the hemisphere.

While Blackbeard did have some success as a pirate, his pirate career ended when he encountered a contingent of the British Royal Navy. In a desperate battle, he and his fellow pirates were killed, putting an end to their terrorizing exploits.

By the same token, angels fell into spiritual piracy (Jude 1:6; Revelation 12:9). Satan's own love of self replaced the love for his Creator (John 8:44; 1 John 3:8). Today he and his henchmen are doing whatever they can to commandeer the lives of human beings (cf. Luke 8:12; 2 Corinthians 4:4; Ephesians 6:11-12).

Even though Satan is a dangerous enemy, we don't need to be afraid, for Jesus sealed his ultimate fate when He rose from the dead (Hebrews 2:14-15; cf. 1 Corinthians 15:54-57). Additionally, He has given us everything we need to withstand the devil's attacks (Ephesians 6:10-18).

Husband And Wife —Two Loving Hearts Creating A Beautiful Harmony

By Mike Riley

Marriage is the bond [glue] that ties two loving hearts together. As each ministers to the other, stands by the other in times of life's many challenges, complements as well as compliments the other, the relationship is intertwined and made fast like the strands of a rope (Ecclesiastes 4:12).

Love does not consist of two people gazing fondly into each other's eyes, but in moving together in the same direction.

Just as the maple tree cannot grow under the shadow of the towering oak tree, so one helpmate cannot fully develop under the domination of the other.

The husband and wife are similar in nature to two musicians playing different notes on different instruments, but creating a beautiful harmony as the tones of one blend in with those of the other.

Let's think about it!
