Interesting Facts

- ❖ The book gets its name, which means “The Second Law,” from a mistranslation in the Septuagint of chapter 17:18, “And he shall write for himself this repetition of the law.” In later versions it is correctly translated, “And he shall write him a copy of this law.” It is truly a restatement of the law with a strong appeal for the Israelites to keep the law and to teach it to their children.
- ❖ The three quotations of Jesus in the temptations are taken from Deuteronomy. (Matt. 4:1-11; Luke 4:1-13; Deut. 8:3; 6:16; 6:13)

Scheme of Redemption

Deuteronomy: The Redeemed
Love the Lord with All Their Heart and Serve Him from the Heart

- “And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart.” (6:5-6)

What to look for as you read:

1. The supreme message of Deuteronomy is love.
2. Deuteronomy gives one of the clearest statements in the Bible of the necessity and results of obedience, as well as the consequences of disobedience.
3. Moses' last words - The song of Moses (Ch. 32) and his final blessing of the people (Ch. 33) are sublime passages.
